

FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER...

In association with Clarins I have pleasure in offering you a totally new monthly lifestyle and business planning series with Sarah Laurie.

Sarah Laurie is New Zealand's most inspiring lifestyle and business coach, and is available to work with you to redefine your personal and business goals and create a plan to achieve results over a full six months.

Sarah is one of New Zealand's most sought after speakers. Those who have heard her speak know the inspiration and motivation that comes from her seminars.

However this series offers even more than that.

This Sarah Laurie Series provides the opportunity to 'workshop' every concept that you learn and fully integrate each one into your lifestyle or business. Special attention will be given to your own personal situation, so that you see results in your lifestyle or business instantly. The resources and tools required will be provided, along with Sarah's hands on, practical advice – every month, from July to December.

If you would love to see tangible results in your personal and professional success this year, register now to receive your information pack.

There has been widespread demand for Sarah to run workshops and seminars this year and this is her first. Registrations are limited to only 25 participants for the six-month series, so register now.

This series has been specifically packaged to be very affordable for the 25 participants.

For only $695 for the entire six-month series you will receive:

- A comprehensive set of worksheets and workbook
- Phone and email contact direct with Sarah for the duration of the 6 months as your personal coach
- A templated portfolio for your personal and professional plans
- A personally autographed copy of Sarah's best selling book.
- The latest Her Business magazine each month
- And a gorgeous Clarins Gift

Do not allow this year to slip past you any further.

Book now and ensure that in 2011 you are truly celebrating!

60 MINUTE SEMINAR

New organise your life seminars
Date Time	Venue	Other details
Dates to be updated 15/12/10	Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch	$30 payable at the door
Lifestyle & business planning series
Date Time	Venue	Other details
Dates to be confirmed	Christchurch	6 month series of half day workshops

After much demand Sarah Laurie is running the first in a series of 60-minute seminars in Auckland this month.

Sarah is New Zealand's most inspiring lifestyle coach. Those who have heard her speak know the inspiration and motivation that comes from her seminars.

This new 60-minute seminar series offers even more than that.

Succinct, practical information will be offered so that you see results in your lifestyle or business instantly. The resources and tools required will be available to you, along with Sarah's hands on, practical advice...

If you know you could be achieving better results than you are, if you know that you are currently operating 'below par', if you sense there should be something more to your life, if you are serious about making this year and this decade a fantastic one, then join Sarah Laurie for the first of her 60-minute evening seminars this month and step up to your beautiful new life!