

FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER...

In association with Clarins I have pleasure in offering you a totally new monthly lifestyle and business planning series with Sarah Laurie.

Sarah Laurie is New Zealand's most inspiring lifestyle and business coach, and is available to work with you to redefine your personal and business goals and create a plan to achieve results over a full six months.

Sarah is one of New Zealand's most sought after speakers. Those who have heard her speak know the inspiration and motivation that comes from her seminars.

However this series offers even more than that.

This Sarah Laurie Series provides the opportunity to 'workshop' every concept that you learn and fully integrate each one into your lifestyle or business. Special attention will be given to your own personal situation, so that you see results in your lifestyle or business instantly. The resources and tools required will be provided, along with Sarah's hands on, practical advice – every month, from July to December.

If you would love to see tangible results in your personal and professional success this year, register now to receive your information pack.
